Arise, Shine, & Thrive in 2025!

“Arise [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you-rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you!”
Isaiah 60:1 (AMPC)

We are so thankful to all of you who are partners with us in proclaiming the Word of God over the radio waves and through the internet. Each one doing their part is vital in making the whole operation of this ministry work. The Bible says that God is keeping records in books of everything we are doing. One day we will all stand before the Judgment Seat of Christ and give an account of what we have done in this life. We should all desire to be faithful and wise servants doing His will. When we consider that this life is like a vapor, our priorities should be in order.

Have I Done My Best for Jesus?

I wonder, have I done my best for Jesus, Who died upon the cruel tree?

To think of His great sacrifice at Calv'ry!

I know my Lord expects the best from me.

The hours that I have wasted are so many,

The hours I've spent for Christ so few;

Because of all my lack of love for Jesus,

I wonder if His heart is breaking too.

How many are the lost that I have lifted?

How many are the chained I've helped to free?

I wonder, have I done my best for Jesus,

When He has done so much for me? -E. Edwin Young

Prayer

Our Father, Who is in Heaven,
We enter into Your presence by the blood of Christ. Seeing that we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, we hold fast our confession. For You can sympathize with our weaknesses, and You were tempted in all points as we are, yet You without sin. So we come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

We give honor, reverential respect, worship and glory to Your Names:

Ricky Pfeil Comments

Mark 11:24 says, “Therefore I say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.”

I believe that most Christians don't believe that verse, but they won't just bluntly say they don't believe it. When I was a child, and even as a teenager, I would hear older saints in the churches say, “God said He meets our needs, but He never promised to give us our wants.” As a kid, I thought they were right because I figured they knew what they were talking about. However, I now can see that either they didn't actually read the Bible, or they read it and refused to believe it because it just sounds too good to be true, or it sounds like it's more than Jesus would really want for us. However, the Lord knows how to say what He means. There is no need for us to correct Jesus or try to word it better than He did.

“What things soever ye desire” is definitely a promise from Jesus that is more than just your bare necessities. He said on another occasion, “And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.” (Matthew 21:22) Do we believe this? He said, “all things whatsoever you shall ask believing”. Believing is the key. I'll give you one more Scripture reference, it's in John 15:7. “If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.”

I think you are just like me in your heart. I believe that you desire to please God and wouldn't want anything that would destroy you, hinder you, or turn you away from God. We need to broaden our expectancy. We also need to realize that God actually really truly loves us. John said in 1 John 3:1 to Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us. He wants you and me to be blessed exceedingly above what we can ask or think. Don't take my word for it, see that in Ephesians 3:20. Jesus would ask people who came to Him, “What do you want,” or “if you can believe, you can have what you desire”. (See examples in Mark 10:51 and Mark 9:23).

God is waiting for us to ask. Abraham was afraid he was going to anger God by asking repeatedly lowering the number of righteous people in Sodom needed to spare the city, but there is no hint in the Scripture that God was annoyed in the least at Abraham's repeated asking. Look at this: Jeremiah 33:3, “Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.”

Maybe, instead of putting up with things we don't want, such as financial lack, an unpleasant low-paying job, aches and pains, and a plethora of other things that make life miserable, we should take God seriously about asking things we desire of Him. Go ahead, ask something of God today, and start praising Him for it.

Praise God for the answer to the Prayer of Agreement for the antenna system needed for KJRT. The new antennas were ordered and should arrive soon! We are looking for the installation to take place sometime in March! KJRT should then be up to full power!
