Arise, Shine, & Thrive in 2025!

November 2025

“Arise [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you—rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you!” Isaiah 60:1 (AMPC)

I Chronicles 16:34 “Oh give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; for His steadfast love endures forever!”

This emphasizes gratitude for God’s unchanging goodness and everlasting love. It’s a call to acknowledge God’s constant mercy and faithfulness, which persists regardless of human actions or circumstances. This highlights that God’s love is a constant, reliable attribute and endures through all of life’s ups and downs.

We are very thankful for God’s faithfulness to this ministry and that many of you are used by God to provide the funds needed to broadcast the Word of God. We praise God for getting the new antenna up on the tower and broadcasting with greater wattage on KJRT!

After finding out that mice had gotten into our transmitter building and ate through much of the wires in the transmitter, we were able to use another transmitter that was in storage for KPDR. Several men were involved with getting this project finished and now we are up to full power!!

We give thanks to the Lord for all our faithful supporters to this ministry. God has used people for over 39 years to give so we can experience the joy of peoples’ lives being changed by listening to the KKN. God is so good to us!! We cannot count all God’s blessings! He is worthy of all praise and honor and glory.

One way you can have a great impact on someone else is to encourage them to listen to the Kingdom Keys Network. So many people have testified that their life has been greatly benefitted by listening.

May you have a blessed Thanksgiving Day!

Ricky Pfeil Comments

There are many Christians that believe that healing is rare, and that the correct way to pray is "Lord, if it be thy will, heal me (or whomever they are praying for)." It strikes me as a strange thing that this kind of praying gets little, or no results, convincing people that it isn't God's will, no matter how many Scriptures you give them describing God's clearly revealed will, and that He has healed us and desires that we live in health. These people come to the conclusion that it isn't, or must not be, His will. Then, they proceed to take medication, or get medical treatment, or surgery contrary to God's "so called" will.

Have you ever stopped to consider that people won't be getting healed in Heaven because there is never any sickness there, nor anything that causes sickness to be healed of? The Bible does say in the 22nd chapter of Revelation that the tree of life in Heaven bears twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month, and that the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Notice, the leaves of the tree are not for the healing of the people who live in Heaven. They are for the healing of the nations. The next verse says that there shall be no more curse in Heaven. Since sickness is shown to be related to the curse in the Bible, there is no sickness in Heaven to be healed of.

The point I'm trying to make here is that healing is for us in this life, not after we get to Heaven. Yet, many Christians don't believe that. They believe God could heal, but many times doesn't choose to. But, God said the choice is ours, not His. "I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live." (Deut. 30:19).

Healing of the physical body is part of our covenant provisions in this life. So, it's for now, not for the sweet by and by. Therefore, lay hold of it. Praise God for it. Quit insulting God by praying that He heal you "if it be Thy will" and then while assuming it isn't, rebelling against His supposed will by getting medical assistance to get healing anyway. Almost everyone goes to the doctor and takes prescribed medicine from the doctor without ever praying whether it's the will of God to try to get well. But, if it is not God's will for you to get well, why would you ask for help from the doctor?

Almost all Christians accept strongly that it is God's will that they be born again. They will tell you the Bible says so. Well, the Bible says that healing is provided for us and health is God's will. We would be glad to give you a list of numerous Scriptures for the asking. Why do so many strongly believe the Scriptures about "getting born again", but are resistant to the healing Scriptures? God said, "I am the Lord that healeth thee", and He said "by His stripes we are healed".

Mission

Our mission is to bring principles for Kingdom living to our listeners. We desire to exalt the Savior, evangelize, equip, educate, edify, and expose evil through our programming of teaching, preaching, music, news, talk, and commentaries; and for people's lives to be transformed by the Word of God.
