The Creative Class is a unique apartment community located in the heart of Fall River's thriving historic district—including attractions such as Battleship Cove and the Lizzie Borden House. Just steps from local restaurants, shops, the Taunton River and multiple state and local parks, The Creative Class is situated for downtown living at its best.

Just off of Interstate 195 and only ten miles from both Providence, RI and New Bedford, MA, The Creative Class is easily accessible for commuters and explorers alike.

The Creative Class offers both market rate and affordable apartments, and has 3 ADA accessible apartments. The community consists of 55 living spaces ranging in size from studio, 1, 2 and 3 bedrooms in the Studios at the Creative Class and The Lofts@640. Eleven of the studios are affordable with a preference for artist residents.

The Creative Class offers generous spaces to live, work and socialize. The clean and modern finishes in each apartment lend themselves to a broad range of design sensibilities.
