

Watertown, MA

Welcome to Brigham House!

Surroundings play an important role in the way you live and look at life. Conveniently located in historic Watertown, our stately and cheerful community is close to a wealth of local cultural attractions.

Brigham House is an assisted living community born out of a historic schoolhouse. Renovated in 2002, the community offers 62 apartments and features trained professionals, round-the-clock staffing and a state-of-the-art emergency response system.

From our welcoming, stately entrance and comfortable family areas, to our relaxing lounges and magnificent dining room, Brigham House offers that special kind of character and warmth that puts loved ones and families at ease.

Choose from a variety of spacious, feature-filled floor plans. Outside every door, your loved ones will discover all that they need to remain fit, feel involved, and enjoy the cheerful company of others, whether enjoying a home-style meal or the numerous shops and cultural attractions of Watertown, downtown Boston and beyond during our scheduled motorcoach excursions.
