Young House Inter-Church Council Elderly Housing is a beautifully renovated 44-apartment community in New Bedford. The four story red brick building was tastefully restored to consist of 16 studio and 18 one bedroom apartment homes.

This community is an affordable Section 8 rental assistance property for Seniors (62 or older) and disabled individuals. Income restrictions do apply.

Staff at the Young House Inter-Church Council Elderly Housing continuously provide their residents with extensive services and activities programs to meet their health, recreational, social and spiritual needs, and to create opportunities for residents to offer their energy, talents and skills to serve the needs of people in need throughout the larger New Bedford community. This property is a few blocks from Hazelwood Park and walking distance to stores, churches and libraries. Public & private transportation is conveniently available.

Residents enjoy an array of amenities, including on-site laundry facilities, an on-site Resident Services Coordinator, 24-hour emergency maintenance, regional bus transportation, wall-to-wall carpeting with vinyl flooring in the kitchen and bath areas of every apartment, and professional on-site management.
