

MIDWAY ARTIST STUDIOS

Boston, MA

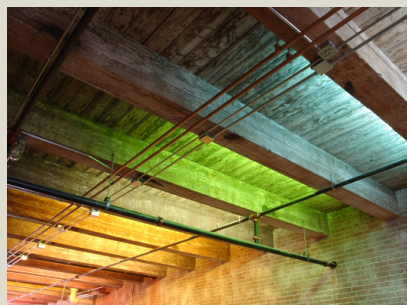

Welcome to Midway Artist Studios!

Developed by the visionary developer Robert Kuehn in collaboration with the non-profit Fort Point Cultural Coalition (FPCC), Midway Artist Studios is located in the Fort Point neighborhood, just a short walk from South Station. Midway is comprised of 89 artists live/work studios with gallery and performance space available on ground floor.

The rental model allows emerging artists a place to stay and work in Boston, and artists from around the world to come and work in Boston. It encourages the free flow of ideas between disciplines and generations.

In 2014, the artists organized to purchase the building, making it a permanent rental artist-controlled building, run by a board of directors, elected in part by the artist residents themselves.
