Weekly Message from the President

Brian unpacks the idea of "unfoldment" as it relates to our working together as a community. Like with a garden, we can thrive in an environment which nurtures everyone's unique purpose. Like with an ecosystem, we can express collaboration and cooperation without competition or trying to change one another. Click here or scan the QR code.

Would you like to learn more about what sociocracy is and how organizations use it? Here is a link to Brian's video introduction. For more details, email bstock@tenacre.org.

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. (Matthew 5:16)

Staff News

Staff Development Workshops:

All staff welcome!

Weeks of Sept 15 & 29, and Oct 6

Tuesdays 8–10 a.m.

"Be Still and Know that I am God"

(facilitated by Brian Stock)

In our busy lives, it can be hard to find a still moment to acknowledge that God is here with us. Discover together how to find calm and stillness for daily prayer.

Wednesdays 8–10 a.m.

Giving & Receiving Feedback

(facilitated by Marni Baum)

Giving and receiving feedback can be an uncomfortable experience, but when done right, it's very rewarding. Learn important insights on how to give effective feedback and listen to others.

Thursdays 8–10 a.m.

"What is Sociocracy?"

(facilitated by Brian Stock)

Is there a better way for us to all work together? Learn about how we make better decisions when a small group works on an issue together. There will be time for Q&A.
